International Conflict Management
Reichsratsstrasse 11 | 4th floor | AT-1010 Vienna

Anne-Karin Grill specialises in international dispute resolution and alternative dispute resolution (ADR). She is an Austria qualified attorney and advises clients in both commercial litigation and arbitration proceedings in accordance with the rules of the world's leading arbitration institutions (ICC, VIAC, LCIA, DIS, Swiss Chambers, etc). She also has an excellent track-record in advising international clients in investor-state arbitrations conducted under both the ICSID and UNCITRAL Rules. In addition, she regularly serves as (sole) arbitrator in multi-jurisdictional arbitrations and acts as a CEDR accredited mediator in international commercial disputes. She earned her law degree (Mag. iur., 2001) from the University of Vienna and holds a Masters Degree from Georgetown University (M.A. in International Security Studies, Fulbright Fellow, 2004). Anne-Karin serves as a lecturer at the University of Vienna and is a regular speaker on dispute resolution topics. She is also the author of a number of publications on the subject. Anne-Karin speaks German, English, French and Swedish.
