

Fred KAN

Kan is the Senior Partner of Fred Kan & Co., an established commercial law firm in Hong Kong.

Kan graduated from the University of Toronto in mechanical engineering as well as in law. He was called to the Bar in Ontario in 1969.

Kan was a member of the Council of the Law Society from 1997 to 2002. He is currently the Chairman of the Law Society's Belt and Road Committee.

In May 2016 Kan was admitted to the Law Society's Roll of Honour in recognition of his distinguished service to the Law Society, to the Council and to the development of the practice of law in Hong Kong.

From 1997 to 1998 Kan was the Chairman of the Banking and Finance Standing Committee of LAWASIA and from 1998 to 2001 he was the Chairman of its Banking, Finance and Insurance Standing Committee.

Kan was a Council Member of the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre. He was also a Member of the Macau Law Reform Advisory Committee. He is currently a member of the board of directors of the Financial Dispute Resolution Centre.

Kan was a Deputy Chairman of the Hong Kong Review Body on Bid Challenges (under the WTO Government Procurement Agreement). In March and April 2010, he was a Visiting Scholar of government procurement law at the University of Nottingham.

Kan is a member of the Executive Committee of UIA and is its Director of National and Regional Activities.