

Anne FRECHETTE-KERBRAT

Attorney at Law – Partner
Corporate – M&A department
FIDAL, Paris, France

E: anne.frechette-kerbrat@fidal.com

T: 06 19 34 21 17

Expertise

Anne Fréchette-Kerbrat is a partner in the firm's Corporate-M&A team, and is co-head of the firm's UK desk.

Anne has 20 years of experience in Corporate law and M&A transactions.

A French-American citizen, Anne has a cross-border emphasis to her Corporate-M&A practice.

Her experience includes:

- M&A transactions for medium to large-size companies (acquisition of Kronenbourg by Carlsberg; Joint-venture of Nestlé and Lactalis with respect to their chilled dairy products, assistance to Alpha Real Capital, a UK listed PE fund, in relation to its real estate transactions in France...);
- Private Equity transactions;
- Capital market transactions: IPOs (Innate Pharma on Euronext, Genfit on Alternext) and other capital market transactions (public offering of Avadel Pharmaceuticals on the US Nasdaq and various private placements in France);
- Corporate restructuring (including cross-border mergers).

Background

Anne holds a Postgraduate Degree (DEA) in Private Law from Université Panthéon Sorbonne - Paris I where she graduated valedictorian (1994).

Anne is a former lecturer at Université Panthéon Sorbonne - Paris I (1994-1997) and EMLYON Business School of Management (Corporate Law, International Legal English) (2010-2016).

She is a member of the American Chamber of Commerce in France.

Anne has been a member of the French Bar since February 2000.

Before joining FIDAL, she worked as an Of Counsel within the Corporate-M&A department of Norton Rose LLP in Paris, which she joined in 2004. Prior to this, she was with the Law firm Sokolow, Dunaud, Mercadier et Carreras, in Paris (1997 – 2003).