

Peter Andronov,

Chairman of the Association of Bulgarian Banks, Country Manager of KBC Group for Bulgaria, CEO of UBB

Peter Andronov is chairman of the Management board and CEO of United Bulgarian Bank after the acquisition of UBB by the Belgian finance group KBC Group in June 2017. His career in KBC Group starts in July 2007, when appointed for an executive director of CIBANK. In March 2008 he became Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and since March 2011 he has been Country Manager of KBC Group for Bulgaria.

The professional experience of Peter Andronov includes a number of positions in the private banking sector and the Bulgarian National Bank. From 2002 until May 2007 he headed the Banking Supervision Department at the BNB. From 2003 until May 2007 he was a member of the Management Board of the Reserve Guarantee Fund. He has been involved in the elaboration of the currently effective legislation framework on bank supervision in Bulgaria, incl. the Credit Institutions' Act, the Supplementary Supervision of Financial Conglomerates Act, the BNB's supervisory ordinances, instructions etc. Peter Andronov is also a member of the BNB's Investment Committee.

In the period 2005 – 2007 Peter Andronov was an observer and member of the European Banking Committee (EBC) and the Committee of European Banking Supervisors (CEBS) at the European Commission. In the same time he was an observer and member of the Banking Supervision Committee (BSC) at the European Central Bank.

Since 2008 Peter Andronov has also been a member of the Management Board of the Association of Banks in Bulgaria and its representative in the Banking Supervision Committee at the European Banking Federation. In 2015 he was announced a Chairman of the Association, and in March 2018 he was reelected for the position.

Peter Andronov has a Master's degree in Finance and Banking from the University of National and World Economy in Sofia (UNWE). Since 1995 he has lectured on Introduction to Finance and Banking Regulation at the UNWE, at the Higher School of Insurance and Finance and at the New Bulgarian University /International Banking Institute.

He is fluent in English, German and Russian.