CONDITIONS OF AGREEMENT

1. Grange Hotels agree to allow the company named to reserve rooms subject to availability at any Grange Hotel and at the rates specified.

2. Reservations/cancellations can be made directly with the hotel, with the Grange Hotels Central Reservations Team and/or the appointed booking agent and must be re-confirmed in writing by letter, email or fax. Any amendments and/or cancellations must similarly be re-confirmed in writing.

3. Any guaranteed reservations or arrivals which are cancelled after 14:00hrs on the date of arrival or any rooms not finally taken up, for whatever reason, will be subject to cancellation/non-arrival charges as compensation for loss. Individual reservations shall be charged for one night as compensation for loss incurred. Group reservations shall be charged for the entire period as reserved as compensation for loss. Grange Hotels reserves the right to levy at rack rate as the maximum loss incurred.

For group bookings 30 days notice is required. A group is considered 8 or more individuals, howsoever booked; whether that be as individuals or as one group.

4. Accounts are payable on departure, unless prior credit arrangements have been made with and approved in writing by Grange Hotels. Grange Hotels standard credit terms are 30 days from the date of invoice.

5. If accounts are unpaid over the agreed period, Grange Hotels reserve the right to charge interest at the rate of 2% for each month, or part thereof, that the account remains unpaid. Such interest shall be calculated from the date of the account until payment in full is received.

6. The company name must be stated at the outset of each booking, i.e. when the request for availability or reservation is made and all bookings must be made directly with the hotel or Grange Hotels Central Reservations Team by the company only. A company email address will be required to take advantage of negotiated Corporate Rates. All bookings are non-commissionable.

7. Should rates accidentally be made available, due to a technical error, that are not consistent with the corporate rates agreement, Grange Hotels reserve the right to notify the client of this error (where possible), amend the rates/terms and/or rebook at the correct rate.

8. Grange Hotels retain the right to refuse or cancel a reservation where the hotel considers that the reservation might prejudice the hotel's reputation or if the company is in breach of Grange Hotels credit terms.

9. The services offered at the hotel may vary without prior notification where changes are required at short notice. If changes are made, suitable alternatives will be provided. Grange Hotels will use its reasonable endeavors to hold rooms as booked, but reserve the right, at its discretion, to use another hotel of similar or higher standard.

10. In cases of bedroom allocations and in circumstances beyond the immediate control of the Company, Grange Hotels are unable to satisfy a particular request, Grange Hotels reserve the right to provide a suitable alternative hotel of similar or higher standard.

12. In the event of credit terms being exceeded, late payment, non-arrivals or disputed charges, Grange Hotels reserve the right to charge at rack rates and to disregard the discounted rates overleaf.

13. To the extent permitted by law, each party agrees to protect, indemnify, defend and hold harmless the other party, and their respective employees, agents and third party contractors against all claims, losses or damages to persons or property, governmental charges or fines, and costs (including reasonable legal fees), caused by the other party its employees, agents, third party contractors, attendees or invitees and which are in any way connected with the performance of this Agreement, except for damages caused by negligence, willful misconduct or default of the indemnified party's employees, agents third party contractors, attendees or invitees.

14. In such cases whereby Corporate Rate Agreements remain unsigned, it is assumed you agree to these terms in utilising the rates made available to you by Grange Hotels.
