Introduction

The World Forum of Mediation Centres was created in 2001. It brings together the best commercial mediation practitioners and ADR centres from around the world, together with managers, academics, teachers, trainers, young practitioners, and all those interested in learning more about mediation.

The Forum takes place every 9 months in different countries around the world. It fosters the exchange of views on the development of ADR, enhancing knowledge, and best practices, giving new ideas, ensuring the best understanding of ADR, and learning from other cultures.

25th FORUM!

The meeting in Val d'Europe, connected to the Grand Paris, will be the 25th since the creation of the Forum

This 25th Forum promises to be very exceptional: not only because this is a birthday to celebrate, but also because this will be the opportunity to gather experiences, ideas, observations about development of mediation and make comparison to enhance our knowledge and our practice.

The territory of Val d'Europe, connected to the Grand Paris is a very accessible location to discover, modern and very international.

The various sessions of the Forum will be again stimulating and attractive, bringing together managers interested in the understanding and development of mediation for their companies, experienced and younger mediators, lawyers, academics, judges, students who are our future decision makers.

Do not miss this opportunity to learn and enhance your knowledge and practice about mediation.

The 25th Forum will be an unforgettable international event. Practitioners from the USA, Australia, China, Africa and Europe have already confirmed their participation.

Mark your diaries now, save the dates and make sure to register!

We are looking forward to welcoming you to Val d'Europe!

Current status of judicial mediation, actual development of mediation within administrative jurisdictions and evolution of other alternative dispute resolution methods such as conciliation, is the result of a concrete coordination between judges, lawyers and mediators. This session in French, with simultaneous translation in English, will generate general discussion with the audience after introductory debate of the panel.

11:00 – 11:30 COFFEE BREAK

11:30 – 12:45 Education – Mediation

Dispute Resolution skills are becoming organic, flourishing from entry level to post-graduate study. Mediation, at its most valuable, begins when education begins, and is a "whole of educational life" experience. This session will enlighten the relationship between education and mediation, using concrete case studies, current projects taking place, actually developed and implemented, demonstrating how important education is to develop mediation.

Moderator and speaker: • Zeina KESROUANI, Attorney at Law, Mediator and trainer in mediation (CPM-USJ), Beirut, Lebanon

Speakers:

- Thomas GAULTIER, Vice-President of the UIA Mediation and Conflict Prevention Commission, Abreu Advogados, Lisbon, Portugal

12:45 – 14:30 LUNCH

14:30 – 15:45 CO-MEDIATION: Are two Heads Always Better than One? Positive Aspects and Pitfalls about the Co-Mediation Format

The co-mediation option may represent a sound instrument to tackle specific arrays of disputes (multi-party, cross-cultural, environmental, etc.) and may present both potential benefits and possible drawbacks to be adequately regarded. Being in two allows planning and performing specific "strategies" in the mediation process. Is it healthy for the co-mediators to have a strategy? What happens when one co-mediator is a lawyer and the other isn't? Can a proper cooperation between one mediator and the parties' legal representatives replace the need of co-mediation? Some focus will also be given on training co-mediators.

Moderator and speaker: • Stefano PAVLETIČ, Business consultant, Mediator and Arbitrator, Studio Pavletič, Milan, Italy

Speakers:

- Jane GUNN, FCIArb, FRSA, FPSA, CEDR accredited, CMC registered and IMI Certified International Mediator, Corporate Peacemakers, Reading, United Kingdom

15:45 – 16:15 COFFEE BREAK

16:15 – 17:30 Mediation Among Indigenous Peoples

Many mediators are familiar with the self-interest model of dispute resolution set forth in "Getting to Yes." Fewer may be aware of resolution models of more profound lineage, where dignity, face, community/tribal affiliation, and clan honor – rather than self-interest – is the driving value and the measure of successful resolution. This panel will discuss selected practices of indigenous peoples.

Moderator and speaker: • Joe BEHAN, Vice-President of the UIA World Forum of Mediation Centres, Mediator-Arbitrator, Behan Dispute Resolution, Dublin, Ireland

Speakers:

- F. Peter PHILLIPS, Business Conflict Management, Distinguished Adjunct Professor at New York Law School, Montclair, NJ, USA

09:00 – 09:30 REGISTRATION OF PARTICIPANTS

DISNEY'S HOTEL NEW YORK

Avenue René Goscinny, 77 777 Chessy (Val d'Europe), France

09:30 – 10:45 Admissibility of Mediation Communications in Court

All communications made during the mediation process are confidential and not admissible in Court. Right? Well... maybe wrong. What is a "communication?" Is it just verbal, or does it also include non-verbal actions? What "exceptions" cause a communication to become admissible in Court? Can the mediator be called to testify? Do different jurisdictions handle it differently? Lots of questions; so bring your knowledge of how it's done in your jurisdiction and join in a lively pursuit of the answers.

Speakers:

- Joe BEHAN, Vice-President of the UIA World Forum of Mediation Centres, Mediator-Arbitrator, Behan Dispute Resolution, Dublin, Ireland
- Alan L. LIMBURY, Managing Director, Strategic Resolution, Sydney, NSW, Australia

Technologies move rapidly and have influence on ADR practices. This session will identify new technologies and study how new tools may be integrated in ADR, will substantially impact not only its accessibility, but also the use and the future of mediation.

Moderator and speaker: • Katarzyna PRZYŁUSKA-CISZEWSKA, Advocate and mediator, Warsaw, Poland

Speakers:

- Jeremy LACK, Attorney-at-Law & ADR Neutral, Lawtech (CH) and Quadrant Chambers (GB), Geneva, Switzerland
- Monique VAN DE GRIENDT, Director Dialogue BV, Bussum, The Netherlands

12:30 – 14:00 LUNCH

14:00 – 15:15 Future for Mediation in Middle-East and Africa

Andy ROGERS will give an overview of some projects conducted mainly in middle eastern countries; Anne Audrey EKONGOLO will speak about development of mediation in Africa and particularly in Cameroon; Daniel TRICOT will present the relation between mediation and OHADA.
